- 5:00 pm Small Business Secrets - This episode introduces the stylist behind the iconic hair of The Smiths' front-man Morrissey; the Turkish engineer who built his multimillion dollar construction business from one patent; and heads to Kallico Catering in the Kangaroo Valley to try crocodile damper and other bush tucker treats. (S.2 Ep.10) (Commissioned by SBS) (Documentary Series) (Class.tbc) CC New Episode
- 5:35 pm Nazi Megastructures - Pacific Megaships - In 1934, the Japanese begin designing the Yamato, the most powerful battleship in history. Japan's determined to retain control in the Pacific so builds a ship 30 per cent larger than anything their enemies have. Constructed in absolute secrecy, the Japanese go to extraordinary lengths to ensure no detail is revealed. As the threat to shipping changes, the Yamato is retrofitted with one hundred anti-aircraft guns as it sets off to battle at Okinawa in what ultimately becomes a suicide mission. This is the story of a floating fortress, the Yamato, the Axis powers' and the world's biggest ever battleship. (S.3 Ep.6) (From the US) (Documentary Series) (Class. Tbc) CC
- 6:30 pm SBS World News - Up-to-date reports and analysis of the major national and international news stories of the day in Australia's only world news service. (An SBS Production) CC
- 7:30 pm The Last Days Of Jesus - Part two of this extraordinary drama documentary special presents a new insight into the iconic Easter events. A leading theologian and an investigative archaeologist have linked Jesus to the most powerful and ambitious politician in the Roman Empire. New evidence shows that over six months, Jesus built influence in Jerusalem using the protection that Rome gave him. When his Roman ally fell from power, he was left exposed on the firing line. With arresting documentary sequences from Israel to Italy and stunning drama, the explosive Roman power politics that ultimately nailed Jesus to the cross will be uncovered. (Part 2 of 2) (From the UK) (Documentary Series) M(A,V) CC Final Episode
- 8:30 pm Saving Africa's Elephants: Hugh And The Ivory War - The illegal wildlife trade is a $20 billion dollar industry, exceeded only by the illegal trades in drugs, weapons, and people. The money stimulates violence, corruption and a sophisticated and dangerous international network of criminals. Two of the world's most iconic species are at the centre of this nightmare. With an average of 82 elephants and four rhino poached every day, there's now a real threat that these animals could become extinct in the wild. Hugh travels to Mozambique's worst affected area, Niassa National Reserve, to find out why they've lost almost two thirds of their elephants in only three years. He joins conservationists, rangers and villagers as he patrols from the air and on the ground to discover the grim reality of the situation. (From the UK, in English & Portuguese) (Documentary) (Class. tbc) CC Premiere
- 10:30 pm Woman Raised By Monkeys - This is the incredible true story of a little girl's kidnap, her five year survival alone in the jungle...and the monkeys who saved her. A unique journey from feral child to modern day Grandma now living happily in Bradford, England. Marina Chapman doesn't know her real name or her biological family. She claims that as a child in Colombia she was abducted and abandoned in the jungle, and that she survived by living alone with monkeys for five years. Now, fifty years later, Marina is returning to Colombia with her daughter to try and uncover the truth. Scientists will analyse her bones, test her subconscious responses, examine the inner workings of her mind and a leading primatologist will try and pick holes in her knowledge of monkeys and their behaviour. But do the experts give her the answers she's been searching for? Or will they shoot her story down in flames? (From the UK) (Documentary) (Rpt) PG CC

- 12:30 am The Cradle of Comedy - A group of young American and Australian stand-up comedians - with Arabic, Iranian and Lebanese heritage - travel to various comedy clubs around the Middle East to perform and experience what it is to be a comedian working between the Western and Middle Eastern worlds. (Commissioned by SBS, in English and Arabic) (Comedy) (Rpt) M(S,L)
- MOVIE:
- 1:30 am Our Life - A man struggling to get ahead and provide for his family takes some unscrupulous turns that come back to haunt him. When Claudio, a construction worker, finds the body of an illegal immigrant on his work site, he persuades his boss to give him a subcontracting job in exchange for keeping quiet about the dead man. Nominated for the 2010 Palme d'Or and winner of Best Actor for Elio Germano at Cannes. Directed by Daniele Luchetti and stars Elio Germano, Raoul Bova and Isabella Ragonese. (From Italy, in Italian and Romanian) (Drama) (2010) (Rpt) M(A,N,L)
- 3:20 am Inquisition - The Tudor Heretics - England has a rich and bloody history when it comes to Religious Persecution. The religious persecutions started when Henry VIII split with Rome in 1534 and started his own 'Church of England' with the King being its head. Suddenly, Catholics were persona non grata and arrested in large numbers, suspected of being behind 'Papist Plots' to bring down King Henry. In a reversal of fortune, his daughter, Mary I was motivated by a religious zeal to purge this new heresy from her land, and during her short reign from 1553 to 1558 about 290 Protestants had been burned at the stake for heresy. (Ep.3) (From the UK) (Documentary Series) (Rpt) MA(A,V) CC

- 2:40 am The Seventies - Peace With Honor - Although it began in the 1960s, many of the most dramatic and controversial events of the war in Vietnam occurred in the 1970s. The incursion into Cambodia, the shooting death of four students at Kent State University, the My Lai massacre court martial, the Paris peace talks, the release of the Pentagon Papers, the "Christmas bombing," the final peace agreement with the North Vietnamese and the release of hundreds of American POWs, all occurred in the first few years of the decade. But the trauma didn't end with the withdrawal of American forces. The fall of Saigon and the rest of South Vietnam, graphically illustrated by unforgettable images of panicked evacuation, represents one of the low points of American history. - 4:30 pm Luke Nguyen's France - Luke continues his journey around the oyster island of D'Oleron before exploring the food traditions of the Loire Valley. He can't stop talking about the infamous "hot oyster" with local restaurateur James. He is reminded of his childhood through his forages for clams with local fishermen Patrick and John. A break-wall is as good as anywhere to cook up a fusion clam feast. Luke discovers some of the magic of the Loire Valley when he cooks a sumptuous rabbit dish in the cellar of an old chateau with owner Sebastian. They share a glass of wine, some freshly baked bread and a sing-a-long with some local fishermen, before Luke unearths the troglodyte fine dining scene. (From Australia, in English & French) (Food Series) (Rpt) G CC
- 5:00 pm Luke Nguyen's France - Luke experiences life and food on the Loire River before finishing his culinary journey through France in the seaside town of St Malo. Luke traps an eel with local fisherman Bruno before cooking up one of his signature dishes on Bruno's handmade houseboat. He spends his last night in the Loire cooking a rustic roast duck dish by an open fireplace. Heading to St Malo, a town of pirates and seafood delights, Luke catches giant crabs with local fisherman Gill. Tamarind is the ingredient that makes the crab dish so delicious. Over the provincial border in Normandy, where Mont Saint-Michel looms large, Luke shares his knowledge of salt marsh lambs. Back in St Malo he meets with larger-than-life character Jean Yves, a third generation butter specialist, and cooks a delicious scallop dish.
